

HEALTHCARE

Intermediate Level Crossword

Across

3. A healthcare professional whose practice is limited to a particular class of patients, or of diseases, or of technique.
5. The rate of occurrence of new cases of a particular disease in a population.
7. The people who work for a particular company or organization.
8. Therapeutic utility of a drug or treatment when used by the public at large under uncontrolled, real world conditions.
11. A measure of the result of an intervention or treatment.
14. An outbreak of a contagious disease that spreads rapidly and widely.
15. Loss of sensation resulting from pharmacologic depression of nerve function.
16. A patient's condition requiring immediate treatment.

Down

1. A vehicle equipped for transporting the injured or sick.
2. Excision of a small piece of living tissue for microscopic or biochemical examination; usually performed to establish a diagnosis.
4. The removal of tissue from one part of the body or from one individual and its implantation or insertion in another, especially by surgery.
6. A procedure that removes waste substances from the circulating blood; often performed on patients with kidney disease.
9. Act or conduct of diagnosis, treatment, or operation.
10. The percentage of a population that is affected with a particular disease at a given time.
12. Gross and microscopic postmortem examination of the organs of the body to determine cause of death or pathological changes.

Across

17. An activity or set of activities aimed at modifying a process, course of action or sequence of events, in order to change the expected outcome.
18. A series of coordinated activities designed to produce a particular result.

Down

13. A structured, directed, salaried, postgraduate training program in a defined area of medicine or pharmacy practice.